SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Instructors and authors of manuals used for purposes of instruction have been ordered verbally not to mention, discuss, or comment upon the Latin origin of the Rumanian people and to combat this theory if possible in their manuals and courses. They have been instructed to insist primarily on the cohesion and affinities existing among the Orthodox nations.
2. It has been formally prohibited to open or close the school day with prayer.
3. Communist professors participating in examinations have been ordered to permit only sons of workers and peasants to qualify. Grades obtained in courses are considered provisional and the final decision on students lies with the "Commission for Promotion for the Year", composed of Communists.
